

What's it all about?

Throughout this exciting subject you will explore a wide range of human and physical topics including hazards, coasts, changing places and contemporary urban environments. You will witness important geographical processes and concepts first-hand through a field trip to the Lake District and there will be lots of other opportunities to develop your knowledge and skills.

You will develop such skills as:

- > Problem solving
- > Teamwork
- > Attention to detail
- > Critical thinking
- > Communication

What do I need?

5 GCSEs at grade 5-9 including a grade 6 in Maths or English. Geography at grade 5 or above would be beneficial.

Next step

You could progress to a degree in: Environmental Engineering, Climatologist, Human Resources Officer, Town Planner, Ecologist, Environmental Health Officer, Landscape Architect, Meteorologist.

Careers related to this subject could include:

Environmental Engineering, Climatologist, Human Resources Officer, Town Planner, Ecologist, Environmental Health Officer, Landscape Architect, Meteorologist.

What's it all about?

Unleash your creativity as you explore a wide range of graphics materials, techniques and processes while learning about the work of designers. It will combine art-based practice with computer-based session using programmes such as Photoshop and Illustrator.

You will develop such skills as:

- > Creativity
- > Time management
- > Problem solving
- > Communication

What do I need?

A GCSE in an art-based subject at grade 4 and GCSE English Language at grade 4 in addition to the general entry criteria.

Next step

You could progress to a degree in: Graphic Design, Art and Design, Advertising and Marketing.

Careers related to this subject could include:

Illustrator, Graphic Designer, Web Designer, Creative Services Manager, Art Director.

What's it all about?

Throughout this interesting vocational subject, you will develop your understanding and knowledge of the health and care sector through topics such as human lifespan development, meeting individual care and support needs and working in the rewarding health and social care sector.

You will develop such skills as:

- > Communication
- > Teamwork
- > Decision making
- > Logical thinking

What do I need?

The general entry criteria.

Next step

You could progress to a degree in: Social Work, Applied Health and Social Care, Nursing.

Careers related to this subject could include:

Social Worker, Nurse, Youth Worker, Paramedic, Psychologist, Occupational, Therapist.

What's it all about?

History will give you a unique insight into human nature and civilisation. You will study the key political, social and economic developments in 19th and 20th century Russia and undertake a historical investigation. You will also analyse historical events that have shaped the UK, including the English Civil Wars and study racial discrimination and the Civil Rights movement in the USA.

You will develop such skills as:

- > Analysis
- > Critical reasoning
- > Evaluation
- > Problem solving
- > Research
- >

What do I need?

5 GCSEs at grade 5-9 including grade 6 in English Language.

Next step

You could progress to a degree in: History, Classical Studies, Philosophy, Archaeology, Egyptology.

Careers related to this subject could include:

Lawyer, Journalist, Teaching, Archaeologist, Police Officer.

